High School Transition: Getting Started on Your After-Grad Journey

This time of year is both an end and a new beginning for graduates as they celebrate their accomplishments and make plans for a new job or move on to post-secondary studies. The ALIS website, www.alis.gov.ab.ca, has some great resources to help students make a smooth transition from school to work or further learning.

Job Postings

- www.alis.gov.ab.ca/employment/jp/jobbanksab.asp Individuals can scroll to the bottom of this page for job banks specifically for students.
- www.alis.gov.ab.ca/employment/jp/byindustry.asp Students wanting industry-specific experience should check out these industry job bank links.

Career, Learning and Employment Tips

- www.alis.gov.ab.ca/tips Students can search by topic using an extensive index with subheadings including; About Looking for Work, On the Job as a New Employee, Trends in Salaries and Jobs, About Schools and Programs, Workplace Learning, Student Life and many more.

Learning

- www.alis.gov.ab.ca/edinfo If you're not sure which post-secondary program or institution is right for you, then use EDinfo to explore and research more than 200 institutions in Alberta and distance learning programs in Western Canada.
- www.alis.gov.ab.ca/learning/ao/postsecondary.asp Students can apply for admission to post-secondary institutions at this link and apply for a student loan, request senior high school transcripts and access other on-line services at www.alis.gov.ab.ca/learning/ao/main.asp

Career Planning

Still unsure of your next steps? Check out these features on ALIS:

- CAREERinsite: www.alis.gov.ab.ca/CAREERinsite This site walks you through the five steps of career planning.
- OCCinfo: www.alis.gov.ab.ca/occinfo This section allows individuals to search more than 500 occupational profiles for information about job duties, working conditions, required education, salary ranges and more. Try the new Search by Subject or Search by Interest features.
- Occupational Video Clips: www.alis.gov.ab.ca/video This section allows individuals to view video clips, up to 6 minutes long, on more than 170 popular occupations. Get curious and take a look at what it's like to work in a specific job.

As one season changes into another, so do our journeys. Students don't have to make decisions that are lifelong, they just have to continue on the journey of lifelong learning.
